Stefnir is an Icelandic fund management company, and Vördur is an insurance company providing non-life and life insurance with sales channels through CIB and Retail Banking

45.6%

Cost-to-core income

- Arion Bank plays an important role in the community through the financing of progressive and sustainable initiatives. Sustainability is a part of the Bank's day-to-day activities, its decision-making and processes

CET1 ratio

- The diverse service offering at Arion Bank means that the revenue base is broad and the loan portfolio is well diversified between retail and corporate customers. The high percentage of mortgages and the healthy distribution of loans across different sectors reduces credit risk

- The Bank is a market leader in digital solutions and innovation supported by the Bank's app, which has been awarded the best banking app in Iceland six years in a row. Numerous new digital solutions have been launched in the past few years, enhancing service to customers and making the Bank's operations more efficient, which in the long term reduces operating expenses

- The Bank places a strong emphasis on customer experience, both in digital and face-to-face services, and meeting the financial needs of its customers via a customized product offering and quality financial services which contribute to the success of customers and society as a whole
